Runberg Architecture Group

Seattle-based Runberg Architecture Group hired Nick Clesi as an architectural designer, Adrienne W. Iwanski as marketing manager and Tyler Peterson as office coordinator. Clesi has over five years of experience as an architectural designer at Holly & Smith Architects in Hammond, Louisiana, working on multifamily, higher education and single-family residential projects. Iwanski has nearly eight years of marketing experience in the architecture/engineering/construction sector. She worked for the AGC of Washington Education Foundation for nearly five years in marketing, and for View Inc., formerly View Dynamic Glass, as a customer success manager. Peterson was with Jasmine Pearl Tea Co. in Portland for four years, working in customer relations, education, event coordination and training roles. Runberg designs mixed-use projects.
